

The church is like that chest of drawers.

- To anyone who looks at in its _____ condition without _____ and with honest eyes, it looks _____.
- Because of its _____ it is valued only by _____ of the _____
- The _____ of the people in a _____ or in the _____ have it.
- The church has been _____ and _____ so many times that it looks like something out of the _____ that is _____ in the world today.
- The _____, the _____, and the _____ of what God brought into _____ will never be seen unless we carefully and lovingly _____ away all the _____ and the _____.
- How do we _____ the _____ and the _____ to be _____?

"Did Christ build the church to have an 'in here' focus or an 'out there' focus?"

- Before the church existed, Jesus gave those who would _____ his kingdom both an "_____ " and "_____ " focus.
- Matthew 28:19

Which does God love the most?

- The church, which is nothing more than those people who have accepted salvation in Jesus Christ?
- Or the ungodly world, those people who have not accepted salvation in Jesus Christ?

The answer to that question reveals an important answer to many questions.

Should the church have the “_____” the _____”_ mentality or the “_____ in the world” mentality? What is the “_____ the _____”_ mentality?

What is the “_____ in the _____” mentality?

Matthew 13:33

Jesus Said -

Matthew 5:14 - We Are _____

Matthew 5:13 - We Are _____

So, Does God love the church more than he loves the ungodly world?
