

Exodus Jesus

MOSES KNEW who he was and what his ROOTS were, he wanted to HELP his people.

- The _____ that Moses wanted to _____ his people was a _____ thing, not a _____ thing.
- The Problem: Moses _____ himself as the _____
 - The solution _____.
 - He was confident that _____.
 - He was confident that _____.
- The S _____:
- Instead of _____ his people, he only _____ on _____.

I want you to COMPARE Moses' SELF-RELIANT EFFORTS in this incident with Jesus' EARTHLY MINISTRY.

- It is my _____ that many of us _____ that if we saw Jesus' earthly works and heard Jesus' earthly teachings, we, collectively, would have reacted _____.
- Moses and Jesus had one _____ difference: Jesus _____ on God and put God's _____ before his human _____.

Printing Instructions

1. Download the notecard and open it in Adobe Reader
2. Print only the ODD page.
3. Now FLIP THE NOTECARD OVER so the blank side is ready.
4. Print ONLY the EVEN pages.

The PRIMARY POINT:
Jesus' ministry was precisely
what God wanted it to be,
TOTALLY FOCUSED on God,
but Jesus' Ministry was not ENOUGH

- Jesus _____ among the people who _____ God better than anyone who was _____ time.
- If anyone was _____, it should have been _____ among _____
- He wanted so _____ to help the people he _____ --and he could have.
 - But they were _____.
 - And they were _____.
 - And they were _____.
- He could help, but they would _____ let him _____.

FINAL THOUGHTS

- If you have not realized how deeply Jesus wanted to help these people through his ministry, listen to these words:
Matthew 23:37-39
- Moses really wanted to help his people, but it was not in _____ to help. The _____ had to come from God.
- Jesus really wanted to _____ his people, but it was not in Jesus' _____ to help. God could do things in Jesus' _____ that Jesus _____ do in his ministry.
- I hope that you, as a Christian, want to help people. Let Jesus and Moses teach you a lesson. You are not the answer. The power is not in you. The power is in God.
